

Matthew Scott

“Garden Groups -- Flowers and Bees”

Wednesday, June 22nd

6pm-8pm

At the Belgrade Public Library

Anyone who loves flowers also loves to hear about bees. This discussion covers invasive and native plant species as well as exploring the European honeybee which is not native to North America. Come join Belgrade resident Matthew Scott as he speaks on his experiences of over 50 years as a backyard beekeeper in Maine.
